THE VERY BESTIndustrial Agent Here for Addresses to Morgan People

The Kiwanis luncheon meeting yesterday afternoon proved to be of unusual interest on account of the presence of Roland Turner, industrial agent of the Southern railway and the inspiring address of Mr. Turner.

Action was taken by members of the club looking to a cooperative effort between the Kiwanis club and the chamber of commerce relative to the proposed athletic field and fair grounds, following the address of Mr. Turner.

The following committee was named to meet with a similar committee from the chamber of commerce on next Tuesday night, when definite proposals are expected concerning the athletic field and fair grounds: D. G. Perkins, W. W. Fussell, W. W. Rahm, B. C. Shelton and D. D. Burleson.

The meeting was presided over by E. F. Baird, president of the Kiwanis club. The usual number of members were present, a few having invited guests. The guest of Paul Morrison was Mr. Gruber, of Mendenhall, Ill.

The special entertainment was rendered by Mesdames Frank Morrow and A. H. Hagson, Mrs. Morrow singing a beautiful solo with accompaniment by Mr. Hagson. A solo was also rendered by Marvin Rankin.

The only address was that of Mr. Turner, which came immediately following the luncheon. Mr. Turner told some wholesome truths in a very forceful manner. He declared in the outset that being a Southern man he felt free to speak very frankly concerning the way the majority of the Southern business men and farmers were meeting their obligations.

"You may not believe it," said Mr. Turner, "but right here in this Valley you have better grazing opportunities than the people have in the great cattle states of Minnesota and Wisconsin. The fact that the northern cattle raisers have forged ahead is due solely to the fact they 'got busy' all the year, while we have just sat around what time we were not looking after our one crop—cotton."

Business Men Must Lead.

Mr. Turner said that just as the women had styles in hats and clothing men must have "business styles" and that those who persist in being furnished in the spring by bankers must be made to feel they are in bad form. Mr. Turner explained what a hard time the people in Turner County, Ga., had in getting off of one crop system down to business and to diversified farming. It was explained that merchants who had been employing extra salesmen and saleswomen during the cotton sales season, and then laying them off after Christmas, now employed their same sales people the whole year around. It was explained that such an all-the-year working program was possible only after the farmers began to raise chickens, cattle and hogs for the market instead of just cotton.

Mr. Turner explained that butter and eggs were being sold from the North in the South, that should be produced and sold in the South for Southern people. He pointed out that just now there was a strong demand in Havana, Cuba, for eggs, and that the place the Cubans ought to get their supplies was in the South Atlantic states but that as a matter of fact they were buying eggs from the far northern states.

It was declared by the speaker that in this Valley farmers could pasture their cattle and chickens for close to 265 days in the year, whereas the northern farmers could pasture only about 150 days in the year, owing to the extreme cold weather in the North. It was explained that 150 hens could be made to bring in an income of $30.00 a month, and that 6 or 7 cows could be made to bring an income of $40.00, and that farmers could add hogs at small cost and thereby produce their own meat.

The talk of Mr. Turner was to business men. He said that if they desired to be busy and happy all the year, they must teach and encourage the farmers to be busy and happy all the year.

Mr. Turner made the same kind of an appeal as at the Kiwanis club to the people of Hartselle. He is being taken to different parts of the country through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Edmundson.

Provisions of Morgan County's New Road Law Are Explained in Full

One of the most widely discussed measures passed by the general assembly at Montgomery in this country is the Forman bill providing for the upkeep of the public roads. The new law is called the "Morgan County Road Law," and was introduced by Representative James A. Forman, in response to a universal demand that the roads now built shall be kept in repair, and that the roads to be completed within the next few months shall have adequate attention.

It was universally conceded by higher officials in Montgomery at the time this bill was ending, that it was the best road bill that came before the last session of the legislature, and many senators and representatives expressed regret that they had not advertised a bill similar to this for their own counties and districts. It is confidently expected by those who are familiar with the bill, that within the next few years Morgan County will enjoy the best system of highways than any county in the state. However, this road tax is not without precedence in Morgan County. Several of the counties levy as high as ten dollars on farm wagons for the upkeep of roads. However, the machinery for the working of the roads is now in this state, but has been employed in several other states to great success.

The following synopsis of the Forman bill was secured from those who were associated with Mr. Forman in its preparation: The bill creates the office of Morgan County Road Superintendent. The first one to be appointed by the governor, who holds office until 1928, and in 1928 and every two years thereafter he is elected by the qualified voters of Morgan County. He is empowered to, have and to exercise all the legislative, judicial and executive authority over the public roads, bridges and ferries of the county, which is preferred by the law on the Board of Revenue. He has original and plenary jurisdiction in relation to the establishment, change or discontinuance of public roads, crossways, bridges and ferries within Morgan County, subject only to an appeal to the circuit court.

It creates the office of Beat Supervisor who has jurisdiction over the roads in respective beats, subject, however, to the authorities of the Road Superintendent. It is made the duty of the Road Superintendent to see that all public road trespassers, and defaulters are properly prosecuted.

It is made the duty of the Road Superintendent to keep a full and complete transcript of each day's proceedings, including copies of all contracts made for labor, material and supplies; all such contracts to be in writing and a duplicate to be kept in the office of the Road Superintendent. A separate account is made with each beat of Morgan County and account to show the amount of funds collected, how and to whom disbursed. A correct record is to be kept of all contracts made with each party who performs labor or furnishes material for the county, specifying the work done and the amount and kind of material furnished, and the amount and kind of labor furnished. These records are kept open for the inspection of any party interested, and it is made the duty of the Circuit Judge to charge the grand jury specially to carefully examine these records, summon any or all persons who have furnished material or labor to testify before the grand jury, and it is made their duty to report upon the same. It is made a felony for the Road Superintendent or any beat superintendent to make any false statement to the grand jury or false entry upon his books.

The Road Superintendent is authorized to carry his men, material, tools, teams or other equipment into any community of Morgan County, to repair or build roads and to use the lands apportioned to work such roads.

The Road Superintendent is authorized to work the convicts upon the county roads, and to hire the convicts of other counties where in his discretion it would be profitable to do so. Every male person subject to road duty is required to work five days upon the public roads of the county or pay in lieu thereof five dollars. Adequate machinery is provided to avoid any person liable to road duty escaping road duty. It will be noticed

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 5.—Guarded by four husky military officers from Camp Benning, Mike McTigue, world's light heavyweight champion, his manager, Joe Jacobs, and Harry Ertle, of Jersey City, arrived here at three o'clock this morning from Columbus. They came through the country in two automobiles.

The party left Columbus secret several hours after McTigue had fought Strubling to a draw before a crowd which disapproved of the decision of Referee Ertle, stormed the ring and threatened the referee until Strubling's hand was raised, indicating that he had been awarded the bout.

Besides the fighter, his manager and the referee, there were in the party Ed Curly, of the New York American, and Harry Jackson and Willie Fifer, the latter two being sparring partners of McTigue.

Ertle declared on his arrival here that at no time did he ever change his decision and that the fight between McTigue and Strubling was a draw.

"It was the worst situation I was ever in," he said, in a statement given by a representative of the Associated Press. "They kept me in the ring for fully a half hour, trying to make me change my decision. I said it was a draw when the fight ended and I said it was a draw when they threatened me and I still say it was a draw."

He declared that he believed he was giving Strubling "all that was coming to him" when he called the fight a draw.

The referee said he did not know until he arrived in Columbus at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon that McTigue and Jacobs had called off the fight the night before. Ertle was bitter again. Major J. Paul Jones, head

WEEKLY MEET HELD
BY COMMISSIONERS

The weekly meeting of the city commissioners was held at the Railroad Street city hall last night with Commissioner James A. Nelson presiding. Commissioners Brittan and Sittason were present as was the City Attorney Melvin Hutton.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Clerk Collier and adopted. Some citizens appeared before the commission with various requests. One request was made to the effect that a set of steps be provided leading down to the basement room at the corner of 4th Avenue and 6th Street. The matter was taken under advisement.

Several questions relating to the paving programs were taken up and discussed at length.

Particular attention was given to a settlement of the matter of assessments on Sixth Avenue South, but no action was taken, pending fuller reports.

The usual bills were allowed and the usual routine business transacted.

ANOTHER NEW CANDIDATE ENTERS

The Daily.

Some three weeks ago the Decatur Daily announced to the public that three of the very latest model fully equipped cars and 12 merchandise prizes would be given absolutely free to the people having the most votes on the night of November 17, according to the rules which were published at the start of the Daily's circulation campaign.

During the short period that has passed since this announcement, this undertaking has assumed gigantic proportions. The announcement was hailed with acclaim by the public evidenced by the many thousands of votes that have been received from those who have already entered their names. Many people, prominent in all walks of life are taking an active interest. Folks who had never dared to hope to own a car such as those given free by this enterprising newspaper are counting already the days that must pass before the possible realization of their dreams can come true.

It was apparent from the start that the more active candidates there were taking part, the easier it would be to win one of the cars or one of the other prizes. The more there are taking part in the campaign naturally the lower the winning votes will be, for the support of the public will be divided, whereas if the race were confined to a very few each one would have to produce several times the results that will now determine the winners.

Some few of the candidates have remarked that to visit all of the dif-

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 5.—Legislators of Alabama elected in 1922 have served already principally what they were chosen for, members admit, with the quadrennial session of the assembly ended and the duties of office slight in through the future three years.

With the passing months, however, a new subject will follow as has been the case among past legislators; they say, and probability over who the next governor will be will loom.

The winter session at the capital, scarcely before Governor Brandon's inaugural was over, found discussors of the next executive going the round and during the months that passed various names have been mentioned.

Lieutenant Governor Charles S. McDowell, of Eufaula, is said by members to have been frequently heard;

Speaker Hugh D. Merrill, of Anniston has been broached on the subject and has been mentioned, observers say;

Victor Hanson, of Birmingham, was widely discussed but declared himself opposed to any movement to place him in the governor's chair and assemblymen are of the opinion that many others unmentioned will yet come into the circle.

Friends of Col. Bibb Graves, of Montgomery, predict that he will again stand for nomination, despite his loss to Governor Brandon in the 1922 campaign.

"Too early yet to go deeply into the subject—yet a list of possibilities could be drawn," is the consensus of opinion among those discussing the next gubernatorial run-off.

The value of the life lessons taught in Sunday School classes was impressed by the speaker, who declared that the good thoughts must be depended upon at all times, whether on Sunday or in the week days to crowd out and replace questionable thoughts.

In his address, Prof. Scrivner, who has taken charge of the Spencer class for a time, succeeding Dr. R. M. McGlathery, who requested a vacation, spoke along the same lines as did Mr. Schricker.

Prof. Scrivner also sang a solo which greatly pleased the company the accompaniment being played by Mrs. Scrivner.

One of the most appreciated numbers on the program was a reading as given by Mrs. L. J. Watley.

An address of the evening which inspired greatly was that of John F. Lovin, Superintendent of the Central Methodist Sunday School. Mr. Lovin impressed the value of spiritual gifts and that the important thing was a proper development and uses of those gifts.

Mr. Lovin explained that the American Sunday School, like many other religious institutions of this country was capable of accomplishing unlimited good if properly managed and the members of each and every Sunday School sought to be their best and to do their best.

About 25 of the members of the Spencer class were present at the banquet.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 5.—Investigation of Pittsburg's heinous murder mystery today centered around the identity of three girls, a snapshot of whom was found in the clothing of the torso of a white man, when it was discovered yesterday in the girls' dressing room of a southside bathing beach, situated along the Monongahela river.

A trail of blood led a group of boys to a pile of rock near the dressing room last night, where was found the head of a man, buried in a foot of sand.

A typographical error in the Thursday edition of The Daily caused the advertisement of Ory-Cohen to offer women's dressed, $25 values, at $1.95. This should have read "$25 values at $14.95." The Daily regrets the error very much and takes this method of correcting the mistake.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Police re-

More than 20 women carried the banners, some of which read:

"Don't let England pull the wool over your eyes," and "British boot-leggers are flooding America with British booze."

The police grabbed the banners and tore them into shreds. There were no arrests.

During the melee a number of automobiles paraded past the outskirts of the crowd, circulating anti-Lloyd George statements. A woman struck a police sergeant over the head with a banner she was carrying and was taken into custody.

On account of the demonstration at city hall, Inspector Coleman of the police, sent a hasty call for 50 additional reserves. The women said they were members of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic. Some of the banners, destroyed by the police, bore these inscriptions:

"Lloyd George's black and tan are here"; "Lloyd George's hands are red with the blood of women and children."

Sand Pile in Boston Led Nation to Paths of Outdoor Play

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—A heap of yellow sand and a pile of "sand pies" in the yard of little Chapel in Boston in the summer of 1885, was the starting point for a movement which has made America the greatest playing nation of the globe, according to the leaders of the Playground and Recreation Association of America.

The association, bringing some 800 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada, will meet here in annual convention October 8 to 12. Some of the leaders who will attend the convention have been leaders in the play movement from its infancy. From that little sand pile in the yard of the Carpenter Street Chapel they have seen this movement grow to the 6,000 supervised playgrounds of America.

Mabel Travis Wood, of the playground association, compares this growth to Shakespeare's typical man who passed through seven ages. The seven ages of the playground movement, she said, are sand gardens, model playgrounds, small parks, recreation centers, civic art and welfare, neighborhood organization and community service.

The year-round playground soon developed into the small park, and gymnasium apparatus, baseball diamonds, tennis courts and public baths came into evidence. The next period of the movement saw the building of field houses to add indoor activities to those of the open air.

Public recreation by 1912 was sufficiently advanced to branch out into the field of civic art and welfare, and six years later community councils and neighborhood associations began to appear.

As a result of the world war there has come the final and present stage of the play movement, the age of community service. During the war, the playground and recreation association proposed to the government that it mobilize its play leaders and play facilities to give the soldiers proper recreation. War Camp community service was the result, and when peace came Community service became the successor of the War Community service.

Now, more than 250 communities have organized their spare time for the common good. Some of the things community service which is a branch of the playground association, has accomplished, are training volunteer leaders, organizing neighborhoods, decreasing juvenile delinquency, transforming cluttered lots into playgrounds and supplying community music and drama.

The home of Lincoln was chosen for the recreation congress in October, because the association, according to Joseph Lee, its president, is "striving for the development of the kind of communities Lincoln wanted the country to have."

Officers Recover Loot in Suit Case

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 5.—Police early today arrested Brookie Moore of Dothan, Ala., and recovered $1,000 worth of fine merchandise which he carried in a suit case and which had been lifted from the department store of Pizitz, where the negro is said to have admitted breaking into the store.

The loot consisted of furs, silk hose, men's suits, expensive lingerie, and men's silk shirts, the police said. Moore was arrested by detective after a chase in which several shots were fired by the officers. The negro was shot in the ankle.

33 Strong Squad of Cullman Arrives

Close-mouthed and bulky the Cullman County High squad, thirty-three strong arrived here early this morning and went to their quarters awaiting the grid call this afternoon when they meet the Central aggregation of football talent.

No word was given out as to the line that will represent the Cullmanites this afternoon, but the fans will be given their admission price in excitement and battle.

The Central High squad worked out yesterday afternoon in signal drill and running back punts. The battle this afternoon will see them attempt to turn back the invaders from a third consecutive win.

Central will open with Lee, Bowen Kirby, Burns, Sewell and Handy or the line. Pepper, Tuck, Gustin and Johnson will comprise the local back field. Hatton of Georgia Tech has been named to referee the contest while Morrow, of Sewanee, will probably hold the umpires job.

FILIPINO LEGISLATORS MAY RETURN TO NATIVE DRESS

MANILA.—Restoration of the colorful native "barong" as the attire of Filipino legislators, is proposed in a resolution submitted by Representative Rafael Vallanueva in the House of Representatives. Heretofore native lawmakers have sported the approval American dress, but many believe it would be more patriotic to return to the original fashion of the Philippines.

The "barong" is a shirt-like garment, with a narrow neck-band and takes the place of both shirt and coat. Worn outside the belt of the trousers it gives Americans the impression that the wearer had dressed hastily and neglected to tuck his shirt into his trousers.

Representative Vallanueva's resolution, recommending a boycott of foreign apparel, affects women's dress as well, and bans all evening gowns made of imported materials.

After a very interesting program the hostess adjourned the meeting and they repaired to the pretty new Tokio Tea Room which was unusually beautiful with its Japanese scenic effects. Real Japanese lanterns lighted the room and suspended in the center was a handsome imported Japanese umbrella. The luncheon served in the private dining room was daintily served and delicious. Hand painted place cards with Japanese scenes marked the places for the guests.

Coburn's Minstrels
Please Audience

Coburn's Minstrels opened the local theatrical season at the Masonic last night, pleasing a large audience. Coburn this year has added much variety to the accepted form of minstrelsy, second parts, and the change is for the better. Getting away from an abundance of plantation singing and dancing, Coburn has provided several splendid sketches, built around the ever-humorous Slim Vermont.

Several minstrels have been booked for local appearance this year and if the rest come up to the Coburn standard, local theatre-goers face a schedule of fancy entertainment.

OIL REPORTED FOUND.

PELL CITY, ALA., Oct. 5.—Citizens of Pell City are still nervously awaiting the result of investigation here into the reports that oil is being found in a well in the center of the town, found on public school property.

Geologists from the Arkansas oil lands have been here during the past few days and say that oil is being found in the well and plans are said to be under way for immediate drilling in the town.

Alabama Women In Large Numbers Tell of Their Wonderful Benefit From Stella Vitae

It is not necessary to go outside of Alabama to find women who are ready to testify to the remarkable reconstructive powers of Stella Vitae in relation to female troubles. This page could be filled with testimonials given voluntarily by women right here in Alabama who have tested the virtues of Stella Vitae and who are loud in their praise of this wonderful treatment. Want of space permits the use of only a few of which the following are samples of many others already received by the Thacher Laboratories.

Mrs. C. R. Davis, residing at 1352 14th street, Birmingham, says:

"Stella Vitae has made an entirely new person of me and I firmly believe that if it hadn't been for this wonderful preparation I would have had to submit to an operation."

She Is Enthusiastic About Stella Vitae

Mrs. S. H. Disheroon, residing at 4408 Eleventh street, Birmingham, says:

"When I began taking Stella Vitae I just hurt all over. My periods were so irregular that I had headaches and backaches and pains around my stomach and in my legs almost drove me wild. I didn't have any appetite and my food would sour on my stomach, forming gas that made me so dizzy I could hardly stand up. I hardly ever got a good night's sleep and it was all I could do to go through with my periods of sickness."

"I began to hear so much about the Stella Vitae treatment that I began taking it and in a short time all my troubles had disappeared. My periods are so regular and easy now that I hardly know it and I've gained fifteen pounds. Everybody says I am looking like a new woman and I tell them Stella Vitae has certainly made me feel like one."

Most Wonderful Medicine in the World

Her Friends Don't Recognize Her

Experience Of Mrs. Callahan

Looks Like a Different Woman Since Taking Stella Vitae

"I tell you there's nothing on earth like Stella Vitae for a woman suffering with female troubles like I was," said Katie Bell Williams, of 1711 Eleventh Ave., Bessemer, Ala.

"Nobody knows how I suffered," she continued. "My head ached so that sometimes it seemed like it would burst open and my back hurt me so bad I could hardly bend over. I had terrible pains in the stomach, too, and I didn't seem able to get anything that would help me get any better."

"But I kept hearing so much of Stella Vitae that I got a bottle, and now I know why everybody is talking about this treatment for women. I could hardly believe it, but before that first bottle was used up I was feeling like a different woman."

"The pains are all gone now and I am just getting better every day. I live! I don't have any more headaches and my stomach don't ever trouble me any more."

"I know this Stella Vitae is the most wonderful medicine in the world and you can tell everybody what it has done for me."

"I feel that I owe my life to Stella Vitae," says Mrs. W. M. Callahan, of 4624 47th street, Birmingham.

"I guess I suffered all the miseries any woman ever did before my baby came. What with headaches and terrible pains in my legs and around my stomach I don't see how I lived through it all."

"I couldn't eat without suffering dreadfully from indigestion, and would get so dizzy I could hardly stand. I was nervous and badly constipated and couldn't get enough sleep to do me any good and was fast losing weight."

"When my first baby was four days old I took 'flu' and pneumonia, myenses stopped and I kept getting worse till I became unconscious 'far lass and they said there was no hope for me and gave me up to die."

"But they began giving me Stella Vitae and right away I began to get better. In a little while all my troubles were gone and I am now a well and happy woman and never felt better in my life."

Mrs. Carter Has Gained Twenty Pounds On It

Cannot Express Gratitude For Stella Vitae

Mrs. A. C. Kinzer, 8212 Fourth Ave., North Birmingham, says:

"I have only taken one bottle of Stella Vitae so far, but already I am feeling like a different woman. The pains around my stomach are gone and those backaches that used to nearly drive me distracted are a thing of the past. My appetite is fine now and I never suffer any more from indigestion. I am gaining in weight and sleep like a child all night and I feel that I can never express in words the gratitude I owe to this miraculous

Stella Vitae treatment."

Could Hardly Believe It Was True

"I am confident that Stella Vitae helped me over the most serious crisis of a woman's life," says Rose James, 3122 Fairfax avenue, Bessemer, Ala.

"Almost immediately after I started taking Stella Vitae I could tell it was doing me good. My improvement was so rapid I could hardly believe it myself, but here I am well and happy to prove my faith was not misplaced in this wonderful treatment." For sale by Caddell Drug Co., Birmingham.

Ruth Has Series Home Run Marks As His New Goal

NEW YORK—Home runs have played an important part in the world's series but as yet the records reveal no startling feats of clouting by the greatest batters of them all—Babe Ruth. The Bambino started as a twirler with the Red Sox in the series of 1916 and 1918 but, as a regular outfielder with the Yankees, he was handicapped by injuries in the 1921 series and last season was badly off form.

Playing the best all-round game of his career this year, Ruth may come into his own in the championship struggle and take his place among the hitting immortals of the title classic.

Ruth has one homer in his series record, made in 1921. The marks at which he will try to shoot this fall include the highest all-time series total, three, held jointly by J. Franklin Baker and Larry Gardner, the highest total for a single series, two, held jointly by eleven players, and the single game record of two held by Harry Hooper and Benny Faught.

Elmer Smith, now a member of the Yankees, holds the unique distinction of being the only player ever to hit a homer with the bases full during a series, a feat he accomplished with Cleveland in the 1920 series with Brooklyn. The homer was made off Burleigh Grimes.

The greatest fame as a series clouter belongs to Home Run Baker, of the old Athletics. Curiously enough, all three of Baker's circuit wallopers were recorded at the expense of the Giants, two of them winning games for the Mackmen. In the 1911 series, Baker's home run off Marquard in the game on October 16, with Collins on base, and the score tied, gave the verdict to the Philadelphia club, 3 to 1. Two years later, a homer by Baker gave the Athletics their winning margin in a game with the Giants, again with Marquard pitching and Collins on the bases.

Baker's other homer made in the 1911 series, was off Mathewson, and came in the ninth inning with the Giants leading 1 to 0. It has tied the score and the Athletics won out in the eleventh.

Other homers that proved deciding factors in series contests were made by Joe Tinker of the old Chicago Cubs; Fred Clarke when he was manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates; Danny Murphy, of the Athletics; Harry Hooper, of the Red Sox; Larry Gardner, of Cleveland; Oscar Felsch, of the Chicago White Sox; and Benny Kauff, of the Giants.

Indiana Lady Says She Was Run-Down, Suffered With Her Back, Took Cardui, and Got Well.

Richmond, Ind.—"I thought I would have a break, so, to say that I owe my health and strength to Cardui," says Mrs. Samuel H. Bennett, Cora Courtney, 31 years old, of this city.

"I was all run-down until my family said they would lose me," writes Mrs. Courtney. "My husband coaxed me to take Cardui, so, to please him, I did, and will say I do not regret it, for I am able to do all my work and do my shopping."

"I have five children, four in school, my husband and a boarder to do for, and to do all my own work for all of us, and time to play. We all praise Cardui, this sick and run-down woman should try this wonderful medicine."

"I suffered with my back; a very weak bending in my limbs.

"I felt hardly able to drag; just could not get up all the time.

"It was an effort for me to do anything, but Cardui helped me so I felt like a normal woman."

SAYS WORLD MARKETS AFFECT PRICE OF MILK

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—An international commission with the power to control in some degree its production was proposed to the World's Dairy Congress today by Dr. E. Laur, director of the Swiss Rural Union.

The price of raw milk is strongly influenced by the prices of butter cheese and condensed milk, Dr. Laur said. These are commodities of international commerce and consequently the price of milk is influenced by the world markets. While the commerce in milk products is internationally organized, milk producers are not and as a result the price of milk in many countries does not cover the cost of production, he declared.

Urging an organization that would permit an active exchange of views on all that is of interest concerning the international marketing of milk. Dr. Laur called upon the congress to sponsor the foundation of a commission.

It is all right for Swiss cheese to be well supplied with holes but there can be a condition of too much hole and not enough cheese, said Professor

R. Burri, director of the Swiss Dairy and Research Station, another speaker. He said that experiments with green fodder silage as feed for cows had failed because the cheese produced from their milk had had an excessive number of large holes, due to the peculiar fermentation caused by the silage feed.
